WE HAVE EXPANDED SCANDINAVIA....!

FOR THE WHOLE OF THE NORTH
YOU ONLY NEED ONE PARTNER – NORDIC TOURS

On the following pages we present to you our new offers for Great Britain.

We have placed our emphasis on Scotland and Southern England – these very attractive destinations have much in common with Scandinavia, and especially Norway. Both the nature and the hospitality are the key ingredients here! Historic clans and traditional tartans, palaces and castles, myths and legends, whisky and Vikings, magnificent landscape and the unique sound of the bagpipes, make up Scotland’s own impressive world. Down in the southernmost reaches of England, experience some of the classic seaside resorts, and take in the fragrance of a traditional cream tea. Romantic picture book landscape, majestic castles and idyllic gardens, which will impress all. These wonderful settings and locations have been ideal for many recognised films over the years. This is why we want to share Great Britain with you. With all our passion.

CASTLES & GARDENS OF KENT

Kent; known as the “Garden of England”, is home to some of the most romantic and historic scenes of Southern England. Magnificent palaces, castles and manor houses. Beach promenades, picture book landscapes and swinging London are highlights of this relaxing yet exciting tour.

Day 1: Kent
We recommend a trip to beautiful Leeds Castle, situated on two islands in the middle of a lake. Valuable interior, a beautiful landscaped park and gardens with aviaries complete with exotic birds. 3 nights at Menzies Checkers, Holiday Inn Ashford central, Maidstone/Sevenoaks or similar.

Day 2: Kent/London
A fantastic day trip to the capital. London. Admire magnificent buildings such as the Houses of parliament, Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, and the Tower of London. In the afternoon you can go to the Tudor style estate; Hampton court Palace, home of the infamous King Henry VIII.

Day 3: Kent
Explore the famous Hever castle, surrounded by an impressive moat, with its spectacular grounds complete with Italian, Rose and Tudor gardens. It was also the childhood home of Anne Boleyn the second wife of Henry VIII. In the afternoon visit Sissinghurst castle gardens, one of the most famous in England.

Day 4: Kent – Brighton (120 km)
On route to Brighton, stop at Nymans Garden, developed by an unusually creative German family, the Messels. Who experimented and created an exceptional garden with new plants from around the world, set in a unique backdrop against romantic ruins and well kept hedges. Continue to Brighton with its elegant row houses, exotic Royal Pavilion and fairy tale Palace. 2 nights at Ramada Brighton, Holiday Inn Brighton Seafront or similar.

Day 5: Brighton
Today visit Rye, an idyllic picturesque town, situated on a hill and almost suspended in time. Stroll the narrow cobbled streets with their half-timbered houses from Medieval, Tudor and Georgian eras and enjoy the relaxing atmosphere. In the afternoon visit the beautiful Great Dixter garden.

4 days’ stay
BRIGHTON

Take a well earned break to the famous British seaside resort of Brighton, also portrayed as “London by the Sea”. With its elegant houses, beautiful beaches and promenade, Brighton is a classic national treasure of a place to visit. Stroll the lanes and alleys of the old fishing district, have fun on Brighton Pier or visit the exotic Regency Royal Pavilion, the fairy tale palace by the architect John Nash. Brighton is a vibrant and colourful town with plenty of atmosphere, which you will certainly enjoy. 3 overnights at Ramada Brighton, Holiday Inn Brighton Seafront or similar.

LAKE DISTRICT

Stay in the tranquil area of the Lake District national park. Visit the mountains and valleys of this beautiful area, with impressive peaks, forests nestled in the hillsides, and surrounding England’s longest and deepest lakes and plenty of waterfalls too. See the beautiful Lake Windermere or take a cruise with Ullswater steamers. See the stone circles, rock carvings and early settlements. Visit one of the old houses or mills. Take in the historic roots from the Vikings and Romans left behind. Hike to the peaks, rent a boat or bicycle and explore on your own. Or try the many cosy and traditional Tea shops located all around. This is Cumbria, the true English countryside. 3 overnights at Keswick Country House, Elms Hotel or similar.

CORNWALL

A firm favourite, proved by having been voted best UK holiday destination for the last 2 years in a row. This truly beautiful and remarkable region is a dream land. Explore the secluded coves and many sandy beaches, take a dip in the world renowned surfers paradise of Newquay, walk between the waters along the causeway to St. Michaels Mount or take a trip all the way to Lands end. Maybe also visit the tropical paradise of the “Eden Project”. And when in Cornwall you must try the local delicacy of a truly traditional Cornish Pasty. 3 overnights at Queens Hotel Penzance, Restormel Lodge Hotel or similar.

WALES/SNOWDONIA

Snowdonia National Park boasts the biggest and boldest of Mountains in England and Wales, but also has a spectacular coastline to match. This area is of spectacular beauty with the back drop of the mountainous region. Magnificent Castles and Medieval Fortresses, picturesque lakes, harbour towns and peaceful countryside all re-side here. We recommend visits to see Harlech Castle standing alone on the cliff face and the medieval castle and fortress in the walled town of Conwy. Your stay will be in Caernarfon, Llanberis, Bets-y-coed or in this local area. 3 overnights at Celtic Royal Hotel, Royal Victoria Hotel or similar.
